Financial Accounting

Financial Accounting's distinctive focus company approach motivates students by involving them in the business decisions of a real company, demonstrating how using financial accounting information in decision making makes a difference in the success of a firm. This balanced approach ensures students understand both the preparation and use of financial statements. Libby's pedagogical features and wealth of end of chapter material have been praised by students and instructors alike - making it a market leader in financial accounting. In addition, today's students have diverse learning styles and numerous time commitments and they want technology supplements that help them study more efficiently and effectively. Lyryx Assessment, an online homework assessment solution, and iStudy, an interactive online study guide, provide students with powerful online tools tied directly to Financial Accounting Third Canadian edition. These tools will help students maximize their study time and make their learning experience more enjoyable.

Effective Writing

Due to the emergence of IFRS as the required convention for reporting to stock exchanges in the European Union and other important markets, accountants must gain a strong understanding of these standards. Intermediate Accounting integrates this new information throughout the chapters so they'll learn how to apply the new global accounting standards. Global examples are presented to clearly show how the information is utilised in the field. The use of various currencies is also explored, which is critical for accountants to know in today's global businesses environment.

An insider's guide to understanding and eliminating accounting fraud. How do these high-profile accounting scandals occur and what could have been done to prevent them. Hidden Financial Risk fills that void by examining methods for off balance sheet accounting, with a particular emphasis on special purpose entities (SPE), the accounting ruse of choice at Enron and other beleaguered companies. J. Edward Ketz identifies the incentives for managers to deceive investors and creditors about financial risk and also shows investors how to protect their investments in a world filled with accounting and auditing frauds. J. Edward Ketz, PhD (State College, PA) is MBA Faculty Director and Associate Professor of Accounting at Penn State's Smeal College of Business. He has been cited in the press nearly 300 times since Enron's bankruptcy, including The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, and The Washington Post. He has a regular column in Accounting Today.
