In The Way of the Cross, Caryll Houselander accomplishes two things: first, by her imaginative re-creation of the Passion and Death of Our Lord, realized with intensity, detail, and depth, she brings a drama of anguish and tragedy to our immediate awareness; secondly, she shows us the Passion reflected in all human suffering. We can no more be detached spectators of the Passion than we can be detached spectators of the griefs and travails of the contemporary world. As Caryll Houselander writes, the part we are called to play is that of Veronica, coming forward to wipe the tears and sorrows from every stricken face we meet. And each time we have the courage and compassion to do so, we find the same image left on the veil. These profound meditations on the Stations of the Cross allow the reader to walk in the footsteps of Christ on that distant yet ever-present Good Friday.

The Ethics of Empire in the Saga of Alexander the Great

This Selected Issues paper discusses the impact of workforce aging on productivity in the euro area. The euro area population has aged considerably over the past few decades, and the process is expected to accelerate in the years ahead. At the same time, labor productivity growth in the euro area has been sluggish, posing risks to long-term growth prospects. It is estimated that workforce aging could significantly retard total factor productivity (TFP) growth over the medium to long term. Given current demographic projections from the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development, the aging of the workforce in the euro area could lower TFP growth by about 0.2 percentage points each year between 2014 and 2035. Appropriate policies can, however, mitigate the adverse effects of aging.

"Glacier National Park police officer Monty Harris knows that each summer at least one person--be it a reckless, arrogant climber or a distracted hiker--will meet tragedy in the park. But Paul 'Wolfie' Sedgewick's fatal fall from the sheer cliffs near Going-To-the-Sun Road is incomprehensible. Wolfie was an experienced and highly regarded wildlife biologist who knew all too well the perils that Glacier's treacherous terrain presents--and how to avoid them. The case, so close to home, has frayed park employee emotions. Yet calm and methodical lead investigator Monty senses in his gut that something isn't right"--

Alexanders saga, the saga of Alexander the Great was most probably presented by an Icelander as a gift to the joint kings of Norway in the winter of 1262-3. The Icelander abbot Brandr Jonsson had just been appointed bishop of Holar by the Norwegian hierarchy thus becoming the first native of Iceland for several decades to occupy an Icelandic see And 1262 was the very year in which Iceland finally succumbed to pressure and became part of the Norwegian empire. Keeping these events in sight without laying undue emphasis on them. The Ethics of Empire examines the thinking of the saga in contrast with that of its source. Walter of Chatillon's Alexandreis the most successful Latin epic of the Middle Ages. Walter's poem is radically ambiguous in its portrayal of Alexander, but the Old Norse-Icelandic translator proves himself more than a match for his master clarifying some issues whilst adding ambiguities of his own and producing a work of astonishing richness and subtlety. The present analysis gives special prominence to the relationship between the scene in which God promises Alexander sovereignty over all peoples and that in which the Macedonian declares his wish to conquer peoples who may live beyond the world of the northern hemisphere.

60 Morning Walks is a sixty-part meditation inspired by Utagawa Hiroshige's kaleidoscopically shifting vantage on the ever-changing city. The project's companion piece, available on UDP's website, revisits many of the same New York locations, yet now with its language contracted out to an error-prone online transcription service. The unmediated/mediated idiom of these two halves disrupts any easy reading of the overall project as a lyrical or conceptual text.

This book is only possible through the will of God. The inspirational messages given to us at times are very evident in this story and are meant for all. God can and will work through anyone whose heart is open and whose mind is still enough to hear that gentle voice speak to them. It is then that we realize how much our heavenly Father loves each one of us and wants us all to have a close relationship with Him. My name is Elisabeth, and this is my journey with the Lord. I was given this opportunity to share a part of my life with you. Alma, my sister, is truly blessed and has accompanied me through this journey. Some of the pictures and most of the inspirational messages associated with the pictures were given to Alma for us to use in this book. The pictures are all a gift from God. For this we humbly thank Him and our Blessed Mother, for allowing us to be a part of God's plan.

A plan is conceived and unfurls with each turn of the tide during one sweltering summer on the Isle of Palms.
