Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa

Total Control

A maintenance & repair manual for the DIY mechanic.

Suzuki GSX600F, GSX750F & GSX750 '98-'02

Affective Health and Masculinities in South Africa explores how different masculinities modulate substance use, interpersonal violence, suicidality, and AIDS as well as recovery cross-culturally. With a focus on three male protagonists living in very distinct urban areas of Cape Town, this comparative ethnography shows that men's struggles to become invulnerable increase vulnerability. Through an analysis of masculinities as social assemblages, the study shows how affective health problems are tied to modern individualism rather than African 'tradition' that has become a cliché in Eurocentric gender studies. Affective health is conceptualized as a balancing act between autonomy and connectivity that after colonialism and apartheid has become compromised through the imperative of self-reliance. This book provides a rare perspective on young men's vulnerability in everyday life that may affect the reader and spark discussion about how masculinities in relationships shape physical and psychological health. Moreover, it shows how men change in the face of distress in ways that may look different than global health and gender-transformative approaches envision. Thick descriptions of actual events over the life course make the study accessible to both graduate and undergraduate students in the social sciences. Contributing to current debates on mental health and masculinity, this volume will be of interest to scholars from various disciplines including anthropology, gender studies, African studies, psychology, and global health.

Sathya Sai Baba was born in 1926, and is a teacher of wisdom, a weaver of stories, metaphorical and allegorical, about the nature and destiny of humanity. He speaks of Atma, the eternal Spirit within, the Self, the breath of God that animates everyone: deathless, fadeless, ageless, infinite, indestructible, unbounded, unchanging, unlimited. Hard to describe a thing so vast and luminous, but it is really the Lamp of Love. Sathya Sai Baba is one of the most majestic spiritual teachers. His stories paint the inner beauty of the Self -- its delight, its allure, its Love -- and how that Self may be realized and lived fully, sublimely, abundantly.
